

I clicked the points and clicked the button. Then it linked correctly.

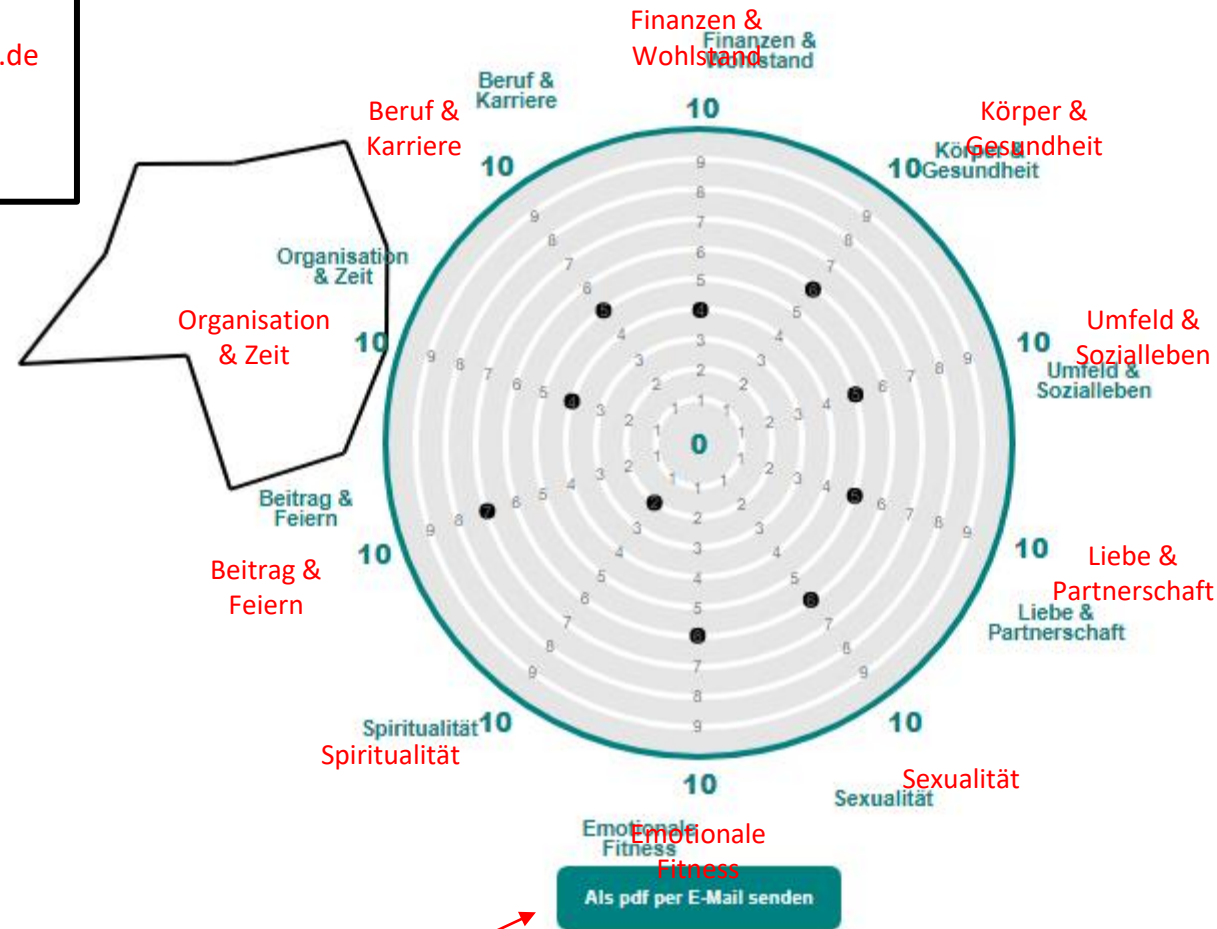

When you reduce in the browser the size from 100% to e.g. 60% the points stay correctly in the wheel but the linked line is out of the wheel due to the reduced size. I think, this mustn't happen.

Please add the title RAD DES LEBENS in colour #008080
(see in the image in red)

Please add at the bottom right

Also in colour #008080

Rad des Lebens

Please adjust the single aspects so that they are harmonic. They should build the end of the thought line 0 – 10 and each should have approx. the same space to the number ten

Please add a space of approx. 25 mm to the text „Emotionale Fitness“
